

Please adopt the appropriate rate for VRS operators. It is a wonderful way for deaf to communicate with not only friends and family but other important people such as social security or police.